Question 3.

Title: - Education - A guidance not to strike

The term "Education" cannot be defined in words but it's a way to guide the people born with different qualities to identify their skill and talent and grow accordingly. If a person with uniqueness is actually educated its uniqueness turn into talent and helps to fulfill his dreams. But if the quality /uniqueness is not given an opportunity, it may result into criminal activities. So education is a way to guide not strike.

Question 5.

A few months ago I went to Mumbai for my job interview. While heading toward the railway station i got stuck in traffic jam. It took one hour to clear the jam. I reached the station at the last moment. I boarded in a wrong train in a hurry and tension of getting late. The train was full. When the train reached the next station, i came to know that i have boarded a wrong train. I quickly get off the train. There i found that i have lost my wallet also in hustle and bustle. I went to the police post at the station and recited the whole matter. I got the FIR lodged and got into the next train that was leaving for Mumbai. Fortunately, that train was an express train which reached Mumbai station in time. I reached the interview venue in time and attended the interview also timely. But it was a bad experience for me. In last, all is well that ends well.

Dear (Your friend's name),

Hope you are fine and enjoying your life with full of energy. Its been very long since we met. I'm missing you as well and there is a very amazing thing to tell you. Actually, our school is going to organize an event in which every student would be given a chance to show their talent. I'm really excited about this event because I'm going to participate in this. Many People said that I'm able to participate. I will be participating on the behalf of my singing. I can't say whether I'm going to win or not because there are many students who can sing amazingly, still I've decided to participate because I remember that once you told me that we should not participate in something in order to win but to inspire others to participate and to show their talent. I was a little afraid of participating but then I remembered this and now I'm going ahead to participate in this event, So because of this It was really important to tell you about this thing and Thank you for inspiring me.

Yours Lovingly,

(Your name)
